

You could make big money as an eBay PowerSeller... just like me!

My name is Avril Harper. I'm an eBay PowerSeller. This means that eBay considers me one of their top marketers, rewarding me with a personal telephone help-line and priority services. This is after just 18 months!

The amazing thing is, I started with just a desktop computer and an old book of animal pictures from my attic.

Yet within a few months I became so successful at selling torn-out pages for £10-£30 each that I was able to give up many of my writing and publishing commitments, and devote myself to eBay. I was making £1,000 a week from a little desk in my dining room and worked whatever hours I choose.

To join me in becoming a PowerSeller doesn't take much... you can get started for just 20p and have your first item listed within 30 minutes! You can spend as much or as little time as you have to spare and decide how much or how little you sell.

There are no expensive set-up or running costs - your eBay business can finance itself very quickly and let you expand as much as you like. (It made me so much money within a few months that I gave up my day job for it!)

For example, I recently bought an album of vintage postcards at an auction for £150. When I got home I used a simple technique (which I'll show you when you become a member) to find out how much postcards like these would sell for on eBay.

I discovered that they could sell for as much as £20 each. So I immediately listed the entire set of over 100 cards, and made £2,000 profit within 2 weeks!

Just think what you could do with that kind of instant cash!

If you're anything like me, you're not too keen on face-to-face selling. And that's what makes eBay such a wonderful opportunity. You make a few checks on your computer each week, then press a couple of buttons. It's as easy as A, B, C!

Of course, there's more to it than just going onto eBay and listing as many items as you can think of. You need to follow some tried and tested rules if you're going to make a serious profit, time after time.

So join my site I can help you earn your own £1,000 a week income on eBay. As a member, you'll get a newsletter and weekly emails with all the latest eBay strategies, tricks and shortcuts. You can also log in and discover all the secrets that made me a Platinum seller.

If, after 30 days, you aren't 100% convinced of its earning potential, you don't have to pay a penny!
