

Get Products

What products and items can really make you money on eBay? And how can you get hold of them cheaply to maintain big profits?

The following articles reveal all, and could send you on your way to big eBay business success...

Recent articles Why Now More Than Ever is the Best Time to Create Your Own Products to Sell on eBay for Big Profits Feb 27, 2009

As you know, to make money on eBay you need products to sell. And, as you may also know, there are only a certain number of ways to 'get' a product to subsequently sell on eBay. You are probably familiar with these ways' already. You might have even tried more than one yourself. They are pretty much limited to the following...

How to Boost the Value of Posters and Prints of Any Kind Created from the Public Domain Jun 20, 2008

So your poster is printed Now What? You can obviously sell your posters 'as is' and do well with them, but I want to share a few additional sneaky strategies for boosting the value (or perceived value) of your map or poster almost instantly. We will look at four inexpensive ways to increase the perceived value of your product.

Business Blueprint: How To Start a Profitable Gardening Business On eBay Jan 23, 2008

Gardening is something many people do, for fun, to keep the home looking good and sometimes to make money. Having so many enthusiasts, voluntary and enforced, virtually any product connected to gardens and gardening has high market potential on eBay. Most things garden related go into the 'Home & Garden' category in the UK, with sub-category 'Garden & Plants', followed by these main niche categories.

The eBay Kommando Reveals: How To Buy Cheap Products From The USA And Resell Them In The UK \(by taking advantage of the strong pound\)! Nov 17, 2007

The particular supplier I'm going to look at here focuses on an interesting niche - that of closeout and end-of-line stock. I won't beat about the bush. The name of the supplier is...

Finding Wholesalers for Magic Tricks Oct 24, 2007

Please note I have not tried any of these wholesalers myself, so I'm unable to comment on any individual supplier's reliability. But I have chosen those that seem to offer the widest range of magic products at affordable prices.

more articles >>